

REUBEN CLARSON

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Civil Engineering, Georgia Tech (1964)

EXPERIENCE

Reuben Clarson, P.E., Consulting - Consulting with marine contractors on pier, port facility, marina, dock, seawall, bridge, riprap and sheet piling design and construction. Consulting with realtors, developers, home and condominium owners on condition of and required repairs to seawalls and docks. Working with appraisers on valuation of marinas. Expert witness in 2 marine construction lawsuits. Owner's representative on large seawall project.

Cone Constructors, Inc., Tampa, FL. Professional Engineer and project estimating and management of medium to large ($22 million) bridge, road and marina projects in Florida.

Clarmac Marine Construction Co., Clearwater, FL. Co-owner and Vice President/Secretary. Responsible for design, estimating, production of heavy marine projects: pile driving, bulkheads and seawalls, marinas, riprap, subaqueous utilities and pipelines, dredging, sheet piling and bridges.

Misener Marine Construction Co., St. Petersburg Beach, FL. Went from estimator, field superintendent on seawall and pile driving projects to chief engineer in charge of design of port facilities, other marine projects and the accompanying equipment to perform the projects.

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

National Society of Professional Engineers
Florida Engineering Society

PROFESSIONAL LICENSES

Florida Registered Engineer #16313
Class A General Contractor (inactive)